1	Looks good to me.	4/19/2021 8:39 PM
2	I think some space for sitting would be helpful on all the levels. Perhaps some large rectangular rocks that could serve play and sitting functions.	4/19/2021 10:55 AM
3	more swings for non-toddlers would be helpful. All kids enjoy swinging.	4/19/2021 9:48 AM
4	What's going to happen to the Tennis courts, pickle ball would be great too! Could there be a need for a league?	4/19/2021 9:36 AM
5	It looks like a very good plan!	4/19/2021 8:59 AM
6	The 5-12 area seems small. Shouldn't some of the climbing features be larger?	4/19/2021 8:50 AM
7	its important to have few flats areas that could be burned or spray painted.	4/13/2021 5:22 PM
8	Plans look good but needs shade in at least a portion of each play area. It's important that children's skin be protected from the sun.	4/13/2021 2:39 PM
9	Looks very sparse - especially the upper area and the swings. Are the fences/railings around the upper and swing area all going to be removed? I hope the height of the swing set poles isn't going to require tree removal or pruning! The layout that shows different plantings and landscaping than what's there presently is concerning to me - where are the large trees near the swings? Don't remove large trees! The slope/elevation changes between the 3 bowls doesn't seem to be accurately reflected in these drawings. One of the limitations of the current design is the relative isolation of the bowls from one another. I can't interpret how smoothly the transitions among them work in these illustrations.	4/13/2021 1:06 PM
10	This looks like a lot of creative fun. I'd would like to see more natural stone and wood elements, plus adjacent storm-water raingarden with native plants and benches around the areas.	4/12/2021 11:49 PM
11	I like all of it	4/12/2021 7:19 PM
12	Playground concepts look great, glad they'll be more accessible. I'm very relieved to see the basketball courts being kept as part of this plan.	4/12/2021 7:10 PM
13	Maybe, a designated but separate "quiet, cool down" area for autistic children that become over stimulated.	4/12/2021 6:59 PM
14	Looks great	4/12/2021 5:59 PM
