- The weather is always a consideration, and one that we can never predict, the weather policy is as follows:
  1. If there is a chance of inclement weather, the Concert Coordinator is in contact with the park staff and the performers the day of the event, and a decision is made together to continue or cancel. Since the weather can change rapidly, a final decision may be made as close to show time as possible.
  2. Audio equipment MUST be shut down if lightning is seen. Absolutely no exceptions. Be safe. Do not let electrical equipment get wet.
  3. In compliance with MPRB policy, if the Heat Index is 105° at 3pm, all evening activities will be cancelled. The Concert Coordinator will be in contact with the group prior to cancelling.
  4. There is no rescheduling of shows.
- Parking passes for the Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board (MPRB) Mill Ruins lot at the corner of Portland and West River Parkway and for the meters on West River Parkway will issued on site, day of concert by park staff. PLEASE NOTE: These parking passes do not allow for parking at City of Minneapolis meters, if you get a ticket at a City of Minneapolis meter you are responsible for the fine.
