Ard Godfrey House

*Minneapolis' Oldest Surviving
Wood Frame House*

Sunday, May 15, 2022

1:00–4:00 pm

Covid-19 Protocols Apply

The GODFREY HOUSE, built in 1849, is located at the corner of University & Central Avenues SE in Chute Square in Minneapolis.

- Dandelion Day celebrates Harriet Godfrey's introduction of dandelion seeds to the St. Anthony Falls area.
- Learn how to make dandelion necklaces, bracelets, and crowns, just as Helen Godfrey did as a child.
- Take home a complimentary recipe booklet which includes recipes for dandelion tea and salad.
- Free Godfrey buttons for the kids.
- Enjoy a guided tour of the charming Ard Godfrey House with docents dressed in 1850s period costume.
- Admission is FREE, but donations are welcome. Reservations necessary, and available at eventbrite.com; search for Godfrey House Dandelion Days. Or call The Woman's Club Front Desk at 612.813.5300.
- Restored by The Woman's Club of Minneapolis, the House has been open to the public since 1979. Dandelion Day marks the beginning of the summer tour season.
- The Ard Godfrey House is partially wheelchair accessible on the main floor but has the restrictions of a historic home. Please call Muriel (612.781.8791) two weeks in advance to make arrangement for guests with special needs.

Metered street parking available. Off-street parking in Riverplace Municipal Ramp, with entrance on 2nd St. NE, off East Hennepin Avenue, or at St. Anthony Falls Public Ramp, on 2nd Ave. SE, off University Avenue.
