No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/bottineaurec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/bottineaurec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/centralgymrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/centralgymrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/creekviewrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/creekviewrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/eastphillipsrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/eastphillipsrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/elliotrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/elliotrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/farviewrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/farviewrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/folwellrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/folwellrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/fullerrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/fullerrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/keewaydinrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/keewaydinrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/kenwoodrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/kenwoodrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/lakehiawatharec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/lakehiawatharec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/lindenhillsrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/lindenhillsrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/luxtonrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/luxtonrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/lyndalefarmsteadrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/lyndalefarmsteadrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/nokomisrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/nokomisrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/northcommonsrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/northcommonsrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/northeastrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/northeastrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/pearlrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/pearlrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/phillipsrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/phillipsrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/powderhornrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/powderhornrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/revdrmartinlutherkingrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/revdrmartinlutherkingrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/sibleyrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/sibleyrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/stewartrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/stewartrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/whittierrec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/whittierrec.

No drop-in visits or "hanging out" by youth or parents.

If you're here for a program:

- Registration is required and space is limited
- Pre-registration is strongly encouraged: Visit minneapolisparks.org/windomnerec
- On-site registration may be available on a limited basis, as program space permits

All staff and program participants must wear masks and practice social distancing. Stay home if you feel sick.

The Minneapolis Park and Recreation Board is committed to valuing young people and keeping them safe and engaged during these times. Buildings will only be open during scheduled programs and not for drop-in visits. For information on COVID-19 regulations and programs available at this recreation center, visit minneapolisparks.org/windomnerec.

