

YOU'RE INVITED TO DESIGN WEEK

HELP JUMPSTART THE DESIGN PROCESS AT NORTH COMMONS PARK

The Minneapolis Park Board is hosting three days of interactive and hands-on activities as part of Design Week at North Commons Park, June 27-30. With your help, these events will jumpstart the design process for the new community center campus.

DESIGN WEEK AT A GLANCE

Drop-in to share your ideas, talk with designers, and participate in hands-on activities!

Members of MPRB's North Commons planning and design team will be on-hand all week to hear your ideas and answer questions as you experiment with 3D building models, prioritize building and water park program, learn how designs are made, and respond to ideas in real time.

All events take place in the North Commons Recreation Center, 1801 N James Ave

 Kick-off Open Design Studio
Monday, June 27, 4:30-6:30PM

 Open Design Studio
Wednesday, June 29, Noon-7PM

 Wrap-Up Open Design Studio
Thursday, June 30, 4:30-6:30PM

HELPFUL INFO

- Sign-up not required – just drop in for one or all the events!
- Light snacks and beverages will be provided.
- Everyone is welcome, including youth.
- Coloring station for kids will be available.

WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU!

More About the Project

The North Commons Park-Phase 1 Improvements project is a once-in-a-generation opportunity to rebuild and transform the park's facilities into a Northside destination for arts, recreation, athletics, and a host of other community activities. The community-rooted vision was approved in 2019 as part of the North Service Area Master Plan covering all neighborhood parks in North Minneapolis.

Minneapolis
Park & Recreation Board

In Partnership With

