

Minneapolis
Park & Recreation Board

2023

Neighborhood Day Camps

Low-cost, week-long (Tuesday-Friday), all-day (10 am-5 pm) youth summer camps

Art Dabbler

Dabble in all things art! Campers will try out visual and performing arts in fun outdoor spaces.

Great Outdoors

Discover Minneapolis' beautiful urban outdoor landscape! Campers will learn archery basics and canoe one of our beautiful city lakes.

Cycling Explorers

New adventures every day while exploring Minneapolis on your bike! Not a learn-to-bike program, must be able to bike at least 4 miles. Bikes available to borrow.

Wet and Wild

Water activities galore! This camp is all about water – swimming, slides and water all day long!

Farm-to-Table

Spend time learning about local edible plants from a Master Gardener and hopefully catch some fish! Then head to the rec center kitchen to create delicious dishes.

Who: Minneapolis youth ages 8-13

What: Low-cost summer camps ($0-10)

When: Each camp is four consecutive days, Tuesday-Friday, 10 am-5 pm. Week of June 27-Week of August 15.

Where: Two locations host camps in every park service area
North: Creekview and Farview
NE/SE: Logan and Van Cleve
Upper South: Longfellow and Brackett
Lower South: Corcoran and Powderhorn
Southwest: MLK and Bryant Square

Every camp is not offered at every park. See online registration for specific offerings.

Good to Know: Pack a lunch, swimsuits suggested, camps take place primarily outdoors so dress appropriately. Camps may travel offsite with youth.

Registration: Scan the QR Code below or go to minneapolisparcs.org/register and search Activity Number "141203" You can also register in person at your local park.

Sign up here

Questions?

Email daycamps@minneapolisparcs.org or call 612-723-8846

Minneapolis Public Schools is legally unable to and cannot sponsor, endorse or recommend the activities announced by this flyer. No person will be refused for these activities because of inability to pay.